

POLICY IMPACTS

Empower local communities by increasing their ability to evaluate impacts of development assisted by groups within the DHRU

Provide information to policy makers to help address over development of land and present structures that incentivize reduced impact land use development

Provide consumers with sustainable product options; companies working to mitigate the negative impacts of land use change will be able to sell their products for a premium and reduce their costs

Engage stakeholders helps strengthen conservation appeals

